Dan Rice, one of the Democratic candidates for the Presidency, is said to be at Washington exhibiting his circus and selecting his Cabinet Randall is in mourning for Rice's sacred cow from the Ganges, recently deceased. She would have given a pious flavor to the Presidential bread and butter. -A city paragraph in the New York Tribun anys : 14 A lady with blue galters, blue dress, blue sacque, hine luce collar, blue hat, blue feather parasol, blue fan, blue kid gloves, blu stockings, blue eyes, and turquoise bracelets necklace, and ear rings, attracted our attention on one of the Jersey City forry boats. -A torpedo was exploded on Monday in well belonging to Mr. Palmer, on the Foste farm. The well was producing about sixty barreis per day, but the effect of the explosion was open a new "crevice" through which the oil has disappeared, and rendering the well entirely unproductive. This is the first occurrence of the kind on record.

The Rastward bound train on the Chicago Burlington & Quincy Rullroad, a little west o Princeton, encountered a broken rail, about 12 Jamestown, in connection with the trains at citi-o'clock Saturday night, and the engine, express, ar point. Since the construction of the Cross baggage and three passenger care were thrown from the track down a thirty-foot embankment The cars caught fire from a kerosene lamp, and three of them were consumed. No passengers were seriously injured -In some quarters it is asserted that Mr. C. F.

Adams will be the Demucratic candidate for the Presidency. Perhaps so, but it is much more likely that he will receive the Democratic nomi nation for the Vice Presidency. The Democracy hardly will go so far as to give the first place on their ticket to a citizen of a State that would give at least sixty thousand majority against him.

There have been twenty-seven deaths th far from the recent sad disaster on the Eric Rail way, at Port Jervis. Mr. Home-Lyon and his Bequest. Spirituali in is on trial in London in the per n of that most marvellously favored of its em hodied representatives, Daniel D. Home. The of Mr. Home's fortunate wind of $800,000 and the prospective inheritance of $750,000, is well known. Mrs. Lyon, however purposes to make a sequel which will not be so deasant. She repents her hasty liberality and when her husband was on his death bed, in 1859, he predicted that they would meet in seven years and she, firmly believing in his prescience, exsected death at that time. Falling in with a Spiritualist, however, she was reformed that it was not necessary to die in order to meet her husband, but simply to visit Home's Athleneum, Thither she went, and under the great medium's potent fingers the happy spirit rapped out: "My own beloved Jane I am Charles, your beloved husband. I live to bless you, my own precious durling. I am with you always. I love, love, tove you." Furthernore it continued: # I love Damel; he is to be your son; he is my son, therefore yours." statically kicking up its legs, the table proceeded to announce its complete happiness at the state of affairs. Mr. Home took it upon himself to effect that Mrs. Lyon should destroy her existing will and make another in favor of the medium, bequeathing him everything she possessed.start on their Westward tour on the 11th of next Home assumed her name in addition to own, the will was put out of danger of immediate want by the glft of $500,000. Mrs. Lyon is well advanced in lite, and Home was vithin a short distance from becoming a million aird, when the lady awoke from the spell, began track, and was struck by the engine, knocked to think herself foolish, and then instituted the present sull, in which she alleges that the trans fer of property was made under undue juliu nce, and that hence she wants it back. The will she has doubtless changed already. Home replies that, if Mrs. Lyon was imposed upon, it was by genuine phenomena in which million of intelligent persons believe, and further tusin suit is brought because he wil not marry his benefactress Vice Chancellor Gil ford is to bring his intellect to bey upon the case, and the result of this spiritual suit in English chancery may be looked for with in CHAUTAUOUA LAKE - Among the places rapidly

We hear of no remonstrance except from person who has appropriated and is using Monoe street, as it is hild out on the map, for brick-yard-for his own private business. Such proceeding is utterly unjustiliable, and creater nulsance, which the Council should about at once. The interests, the convenience, of citizens living on the streets named, should i postponed or disregarded, because they interpere with any "squatter" on a public highway. It a a manifest hardship, and damage to every putoner to permit the continuence of such an struction and destruction of one of the most im portant highways, is one of the most growing and fairest sections of the city, ferminating at one exremity at the Depot, and at the other at Abbott's Grave.
